  17. As far as possible, disputes may be resolved with mutual agreement between the procuring entity and bidders, suppliers, contractors and consultants through alternate dispute resolution mechanisms to avoid going through arbitration and litigation stages. All the contracts will be governed by the laws of India. The courts of the place, from where the acceptance of tender has been issued, shall alone have jurisdiction to decide any dispute arising out of or in respect of the contract. Irrespective of the place of delivery, the place of performance or place of payment under the contract or the place of issue of advance intimation of acceptance of tender, the contract will be deemed to have been made at the place from where the acceptance of the tender has been issued. In the event of any question, dispute or difference arising under the contract conditions or any special conditions of contract, or in connection with the contract (except as to any matters the decision of which is specially provided for by these or the special conditions) the same will be referred to the sole arbitration of an officer, from the government department other than the department which decided the contract, having sufficient knowledge of law, appointed to be the arbitrator by the Buyer. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both the parties to this contract. In the event of the arbitrator dying, neglecting or refusing to act or resigning or being unable to act for any reason, it will be lawful for the Buyer to appoint another arbitrator in place of the outgoing arbitrator in the manner aforesaid, It is further a term of the contract that no person other than the person appointed by the Buyer as aforesaid should act as arbitrator and if for any reason that is not possible, the matter is not to be referred to arbitration at all. Arbitrator may, from time to time, with the consent of all parties to the contract enlarge the time for making the award. In pursuance of a reference, the assessment of the costs incidental to the reference and award respectively will be at the discretion of the arbitrator. Subject to as aforesaid, the Arbitration and Conciliation [Amendment] Act, 2015 amended up to date and the rules there under and any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force will be deemed to apply to the Arbitration proceedings under this clause. The arbitrator will be requested to give a reasoned award. The venue of arbitration will be the place from which formal Acceptance of Tender is issued or such other place as the Buyer at his discretion may determine.
