c) If item is required to be tested at outside laboratory (not in the Buyer's premises), testing charge will be borne by the Buyer. However, only in case of testing of Umpire Sample in an outside lab, if the Umpire sample fails, the Seller shall bear the expenses of the Umpire sample testing.

5. Removal of Rejection:

If the rejected goods have already been paid for (partly or fully), the Seller shall before removal of rejected goods deliver correct replacement goods at Buyer's premises completely free of cost (including cost of goods, taxes, duties etc.) or refund the payment received as well as make full compensation for freight taxes, duties etc. The rejected Stores shall lie at Seller's risk from the time of such rejections and if not removed within the above period, the Buyer shall have the right to dispose off the said rejected materials as he may deem fit without any financial obligation to the Seller. In case the payment of rejected material has already been made by the Buyer (partly or fully) and such rejected materials are disposed off by the Buyer due to non-acceptance of the same by the Seller, then the Seller shall be liable to make good the loss incurred to the Buyer. To make good the loss, the Seller also agrees that the said loss may be recovered from any outstanding amount lying with the Seller in any contract with the Seller.

6. Sellers responsibility:

The Seller should undertake to be responsible for the delivery of the goods in satisfactory condition and without loss or damage at the final destination and until the same is actually received by the Buyer at its works or other place of final destination. For this purpose goods carried by the railway or other carrier shall be deemed to be carried at the risk of the Seller. If on inspection at final destination the buyer discovers any discrepancy, the Buyer will be entitled (notwithstanding that the property of goods shall have passed on to the Company) to refuse acceptance of the goods and take action as per GeM Policies.

7. Packing:

a) Responsibility for proper packing - The Seller shall be responsible for the stores being sufficiently and properly packed, for transport by rail/road/sea/air/ or any combination of above, so as to ensure their being free from damage on arrival at the destination. Packing material shall not be returned to the Seller, unless stated otherwise in the contract. Packing material shall be in accordance with relevant government guidelines with regard to packing material, wherever applicable, shall be adhered to by the Seller.

b) Marking of Packages, Packing, etc. - Each package delivered under the Contract shall bear the following:

- Name of the Seller & address
- Contract Number & date
- Consignee's name and address
- Brief Description and quantity of contents

- Wherever applicable the following should be indicated:

- Gross weight, net weight
- Distinctive number or mark / identification which is also to be shown, for the purpose of identification on the Seller's packing list.

8. Test and Fitment Certificate:

The Seller must furnish test certificate for the material shipped showing the details of test results. Fitment certificate is required in case of proprietary spares / components.

9. Delivery:

The Buyer shall be entitled to the benefit of any decrease in price on account of reduction in or remission of customs duty or on account of any other Tax or duty or any other ground as stipulated in the price variation clause, foreign exchange rate variation or any other variation clause which takes place during the stipulated delivery period of the contract.

Notwithstanding any stipulation in the Contract for an increase in price on any other ground, including price variation clause or foreign exchange rate variation, or any other variation clause, no such increase after the original delivery date shall be admissible on such goods delivered after the said date.

10. Failure of Delivery:

In case the delivery is delayed beyond the prescribed delivery period, the material can only be supplied with the consent of the Buyer. Should the Seller fail to deliver the stores or any consignment thereof, within the period for such delivery, the Buyer reserves the right to take action as per GeM policies.

In addition, subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, if the seller neglects or fails to perform the obligation by the time or times agreed upon, for any reason other than Force Majeure, the Buyer after having considered the extent of such negligence or non-performance, after giving notice of 14 to 30 days or any such extended period as may be mutually agreed, to the seller to rectify, shall take such action as it considers fit including the right to purchase the material, mitigating any losses, at the risk and cost of the Seller as far as the undelivered quantity in that Delivery Period is concerned. The Right of the buyer for Risk Purchase shall be in addition to the Right of buyer to terminate the Contract due to the fault of the Seller.

The price differential in case of higher cost to SAIL, if any, shall have to be borne by the defaulting seller. The defaulting seller shall have no claim over the quantity, which they failed to supply.

11. Weighment:

For bulk material to be accepted by weight, all the trucks / wagons / trailers / tankers etc. shall be weighed and certified at the Buyer's weighbridge(s).

Seller's challan weight for each truck / wagon / trailer / tanker etc. shall be accepted as final, if the weighment at Buyer's weighbridge(s) is found to be more than the challan weight, the payment shall be based on the weighment at Buyer's weighbridge(s). If the weighment at Buyer's weighbridge(s) is found to be less than the challan weight, the payment shall be based on the challan weight.

In case the weighment at Buyer's weighbridge(s) is found to be less than challan weight even after allowing the tolerance range indicated in the Contract, the weighment at Buyer's premises shall be final for the purpose of payment.

12. Settlement for discrepant material:

After receipt of material at Buyer's premises, if it is found that the material does not conform to order specifications, intimation in this regard shall be given to Seller within 45 days of receipt of such material. Seller shall depute his representative within 20 days of receipt of such intimation for inspection/assessment. Buyer shall decide the amount to be recovered from the Seller and Seller shall remit the same to the Buyer within 15 days of receipt of such intimation. All costs associated with above shall be borne by Seller. Intimation by way of an e-mail through the authorized e-mail address of the Seller without the "failure notification" shall be considered to be a valid service of the intimation in case no acknowledgment of the receipt of e-mail is provided by the Seller.

13. Force Majeure:

The Notice of declaration of Force Majeure must be supported by the Certificate of relevant Railway / Port Authority of Commerce/Government or Quasi Government body. If the said certificate is not available, the Affected Party must provide a certificate signed by the Affected Party's Company Secretary and one of the Directors on behalf of the Affected Company. In addition, the Affected Party shall also intimate the cessation of such Force Majeure. Intimation of cessation of Force Majeure shall be accompanied by a certificate, from the authorities as stated above.

14. Settlement of Disputes other than taxation between SAIL and another Central Public Sector Enterprise (CPSE) or SAIL and Govt Department(s)/Organization(s) including State Government shall be as per the following guidelines of Government of India. In event of any dispute or difference in interpretation and application of the provisions of commercial contract(s) between CPSE/ Port trusts inter se and also between CPSEs and Government Departments/ Organizations (excluding disputes relating to Railways, Income Tax, Customs and Excise Departments), such disputes or difference shall be taken up by either party for its resolution through arbitration as mentioned in DPE OM No. 05/0003/2019-fts-10937 dated 14th December 2022 and decision of Arbitrator in the said dispute will be binding on both the parties."
